NEW YORK CHAPTER, INC.

NEW YORK, N.Y. 10022

Mr. Robbie R. Inman
Deputy Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Mr. Inman:

We would like to invite your organization to directly participate in our chapter's educational program by having one of your highly qualified managerial or technical staff members address our group.

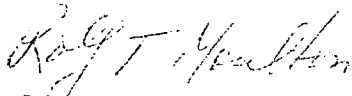

The New York Chapter of DPMA serves the information processing community by providing opportunities for both professional education and interaction in our industry. This is accomplished at monthly chapter meetings and semi-monthly seminars.

Our Program Committee is responsible for establishing the Chapter's educational direction and securing speakers for meetings and seminars. As committee chairman, I am soliciting your assistance by asking you to identify high level speakers who would like to address our membership at either a monthly meeting or training seminar. We would especially like speakers in the areas of management, data communications, systems development, office automation, data security, education and micro/mini systems.

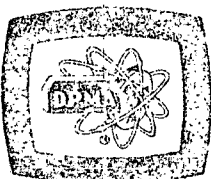

I would very much appreciate your taking this opportunity to ask appropriate members of your organization to join us. It would be an honor to have you as participating members and by volunteering as speakers. Interested individuals should contact me personally at our chapter address.

Thank you for your help and cooperation.

Sincerely,

Rolf T. Moulton, CDP
Program Chairman
